

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media inquiries to:
Suzanne Bracken
Edelman
tel: 312-233-1282
suzanne.bracken@edelman.com

LIVEWIRE CHICAGO THEATRE
modern. honest. exposed.

LiveWire Chicago Theatre announces new company and 2006/2007 season lineup

CHICAGO, IL (June 28, 2006) - LiveWire Chicago Theatre (LCT), announces it's 2006/2007 season. LCT will be mounting three productions, all to be staged in the new Side Project Theater at 1439 W Jarvis Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

The shows are:

No Exit
Written by Jean-Paul Sartre
Directed by Christopher Dennis
Runs October 12, 2006 to November 5, 2006

Another Lover
Written and Directed by Joshua Aaron Weinstein
Runs February 8, 2007 to February 18, 2007

The Love of the Nightingale
Written by Timberlake Wertenbaker
Directed by Glenn Proud
Runs April 5, 2007 to April 29, 2007

Further information regarding dates, show times and ticket pricing will be available closer to show opening.

LiveWire Chicago Theatre is a new and wholly separate entity from Live Wire Theater Company. Live Wire Theater Company dissolved as a company on June 1, 2006 under the advisement of it's board of directors. LiveWire Chicago Theater was created as a new and separate entity on June 5, 2006.

Under new creative and corporate management, LiveWire Chicago Theatre will provide a theater experience that is modern, honest and exposed.

For additional information, please visit www.livewirechicago.com